Are you heading to college next year? Don't leave money on the table. Complete your @FAFSA form starting tomorrow.

PREPARING FOR THE FAFSA®

The FAFSA asks questions about you and your finances, so have the information below handy.

Don't have all your info ready yet? That's okay; you can start the FAFSA, save it, and come back later to finish it. (To find out whether you need to report info about your parents, visit StudentAid.gov/dependency.)

GATHER THIS INFORMATION

- Social Security number
- Alien registration number
- Federal tax information or tax returns
- Records of untaxed income
- Cash, savings, and checking account balances
- Investments other than the home in which you live

Medal of Honor

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

"This is one of the best workshops I've ever been to."

Dear Educator,

This full day training will provide you with all the tools you need to bring the Medal of Honor Character Development Program into your classroom. This flexible, cross-curricular resource, which uses the Oral Histories of Medal of Honor Recipients, focuses on how students can use these examples of courage, commitment, sacrifice and integrity to influence change in their own communities.

There is no cost for attendance; your school will be reimbursed for the cost of your substitute teacher. High school teachers from all subject areas along with counselors, coaches and administrators are invited to attend.

Attendees will

- Receive the full curriculum kit at no cost
- Participate in model lessons
- Learn best practices for their classrooms
- Enjoy a complimentary breakfast and lunch
- Be eligible for reimbursement of substitute costs for the training day
- Receive at least 6.5 professional development hours

Medal of Honor

"This is one of the best workshops I've ever been to."

Dear Educator,

This full day training will provide you with all the tools you need to bring the Medal of Honor Character Development Program into your classroom. This flexible, cross-curricular resource, which uses the Oral Histories of Medal of Honor Recipients, focuses on how students can use these examples of courage, commitment, sacrifice and integrity to influence change in their own communities.

There is no cost for attendance; your school will be reimbursed for the cost of your substitute teacher. High school teachers from all subject areas along with counselors, coaches and administrators are invited to attend.

Attendees will

- Receive the full curriculum kit at no cost
- Participate in model lessons
- Learn best practices for their classrooms
- Enjoy a complimentary breakfast and lunch
- Be eligible for reimbursement of substitute costs for the training day
- Receive at least 6.5 professional development hours
