NORFOLK, ss.

SUPERIOR COURT
CRIMINAL SESSION.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

vs.

5545-5546.

NICOLA SACCO and BARTOLOMEO VANZETTI:

AFFIDAVIT.

I, Frederick G. Katzmann, being first duly sworn on oath depose and say that at the time of the trial of the above-named cases, I was then District Attorney for the Southeastern District and was in charge of the prosecution of said cases. That I know Lola R. Andrews who was called as a witness by the Commonwealth and testified at said trial. That I never knew during the progress of said trial, and more particularly prior to the time when the said Lola R. Andrews took the stand as a witness as aforesaid that she had been talking or had been seen talking in the Courthouse with Mr. J. J. McAnarney, one of counsel for the defendants. That I did not ask her, nor did Harold P. Williams, Assistant District Attorney at said trial in my presence ask her what Mr. McAnarney had asked her, nor did the said Lola R. Andrews indicate to me, or to the said Mr. Williams in my presence, that the said Mr. McAnarney desired to talk with the said Lola R. Andrews on the night prior to her first taking the witness stand. I further depose and say that I did not instruct the said Lola R. Andrews, nor did Mr. Williams in my presence instruct her, that she was not to tell Mr. McAnarney what she would testify to, nor that she was to tell him anything that would throw him off the track.

I further depose and say that I never intimidated or coerced, nor sought <sup>or</sup> attempted to intimidate or coerce, the said Lola R. Andrews.
