 The deposition of Ann putnam who testified and saith that on the 5th of may at evening I saw the apparition of Mr George Burrroughs who previously tortured me and urged me to writ in his book which I refused then he told me that his two first wives would appeare to me presently and tel me a great many lyes but I should not beleue them. Then immediately appeared to me the forme of two women in winding sheet and napkins about their heads: at which I was greatly affrighted: and they turned their faces towards Mr Burrroughs and looked very red and angry and told him that he had been a Cruell man to them, and that their blood did cry for vengeance against him: and also told him that they should be clothed with white robes in heaven when he should be cast into hell: and immediately he vanished away: and as soon as he was gon the two women turned their faces towards me and looked as pale as a white wall: and told me that they were Mr Burrroughs two first wives and that he had murdered them: and one told me that she was his first wife and he staked his under the left arme and put a pease of sealing wax on the wound and she pulled aside the winding sheet and shewed me the place and also told me that she was in the house where Mr. parish now liues: and the other and the other told me that Mr. Burrroughs and that wife which he hath now filed his ^{in his vessel} because they would have one another: and they both charged me that I should tell these things to the magistrates before Mr Burrroughs and if he did not own them they did not know but that they should appeare their: the morning also Mr Lawson and his daughter Ann appeared to me whom I knew: and told me that Mr Burrroughs murdered them: this morning also appeared to me another woman in a winding sheet and told me that she was goodman fulers first wife and Mr Burrroughs filed her because there was some difference between her husband and him: also on the 9th may during the time of his examination he did most grievously torment and afflict many walm mesy lewes Elizabeth Hubbard and Abigail williams by pinching ^{pricks} and choaking them.
