

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

A Proclamation

Whereas African immigrants continue to be a vital part of the Commonwealth's rich diversity by contributing significantly to all aspects of daily life, including education, medicine, commerce, agriculture, public service, technology, and the arts; and

Whereas African Union Day is celebrated on September 9th, 2011, and the United Nations has declared 2011 as the International Year of People of African Descent; and

Whereas Raising awareness about the health issues facing African immigrants is crucial to effectively minimizing health disparities within the community; and

Whereas A healthy and vibrant African community will continue to enrich American life with its heritage and culture; and

Whereas It is appropriate that all residents recognize African immigrants for their many contributions to the cities and towns across our Commonwealth,

Now, Therefore, I, Deval L. Patrick, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim September 2011 to be,

AFRICAN IMMIGRANT HERITAGE AND HEALTH MONTH

And urge all the citizens of the Commonwealth to take cognizance of this event and participate fittingly in its observance.

Given at the Executive Chamber in Boston, this twenty-second day of September, in the year two thousand and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and thirty-fifth.
