PLYMOUTH, SS.

COMMONWEALTH

vs.

Bert Vanzetti

ON COMPLAINT OF

Michael J. Connolly

FOR

carrying loaded revolver without a permit

BY VIRTUE OF A ~~WARRANT~~ ~~SUMMONS~~

~~And~~ ~~issued~~ ~~upon~~ ~~said~~ complaint, a copy of which complaint is hereto annexed, the said Defendant is before the Police Court of Brockton, at Brockton, in said County of Plymouth, on the sixth

day of

May

A. D. ~~191~~ ¹⁹²⁰, and the said complaint is read to him and being asked whether he is guilty of the offence there charged upon him says he is --- guilty, and thereupon the further consideration of said complaint is by said court continued ~~from time to time~~ to the eighth day of May A. D. ~~191~~ ¹⁹²⁰

It appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not engaged in the Military or Naval Service and the public safety and the defence of the Commonwealth requires, in the opinion of the Court, that the defendant be refused to be admitted to bail and thereupon said Court refuses to admit the said defendant to bail.

On May 8, A.D. 1920 the further consideration of said complaint is by said Court continued to May 12, A.D. 1920 and the said Court refuses as aforesaid, to admit the said defendant to bail.

On May 12, A.D. 1920 the further consideration of said Complaint is by said Court continued, with the consent of the defendant, to June 26, A.D. 1920 and said Court orders that the said defendant be held on his own recognizance and thereupon the said defendant recognizes in the sum of five hundred dollars for his personal appearance before said Court on said June 26.

On June 26, A.D. 1920 the said defendant does not appear before the said Court and is defaulted.

~~to the rules and regulations thereof and the statutes of said Commonwealth,~~ ~~months, from and~~
~~after the~~ ~~day of said~~

~~And said Defendant was thereupon informed of his right to appeal.~~

~~And the said Defendant waived his right to appeal in open Court and the Court thereupon ordered that said sentence be suspended until~~

~~A. D., 191, and the said Defendant be placed on probation until that time, at which last mentioned date,~~

~~And the Defendant complies with this order, fails and refuses to comply with this order, and is committed.~~
