Dear Mr. Daner:

It grieved me deeply to learn from our official records which have just come from the War Department of the death of your brother. There is nothing I can say to lessen your sadness, but I know that those who give their lives in this terrible struggle are earning the everlasting gratitude of their fellow men. For they die, so that we who are left and our children in the years to come will enjoy in peace the blessings of a better world.

May I express my pride in the sacrifice in which you so directly share and my heartfelt sorrow for your loss.

Sincerely yours,

Leverett Saltonstall
