Mr. R. B. Worthington,
Office of Clerk of Courts,
Dedham, Mass.

Dear Mr. Worthington:

I think I would like to check up the entire Bill of Exceptions, because it is difficult for one man, however careful, to make sure that there are no errors. Especially where the responsibility ultimately rests upon us, I think we ought to check the proof. Do not let my wish to be proof-reader derogate from my appreciation of your good work as editor.

Very truly yours,
