

The Deposition of Sam. Parris aged about 39 years, & Nathanael 42 Ingersoll aged about fifty & eight years & Thomas Putnam aged about forty years all of Salem testify & saith that severall of the bewitched persons were much afflicted at the examination of Martha Kory, wife to Giles Kory of Salem, & ~~particular~~ before the honourable Magistrates. 21. March. 1691. & particularly that ~~when~~ before her house were held severall of the afflicted were pincht, & when said Martha bit her lip severall of them were bitten: & that some of the afflicted said there was a black man whispering in her ear, namely Mary Walcott and Abigail Williams both of which aff were bit & pincht by her as they said

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is arranged in several lines across the page.]

The Queen of

