

If your Honor please, I have notified each of the physicians who are connected with these reports to be present, and I understand they are here in the court room. If your Honor so desires, I will put them formally on the stand and examine them myself, or I will put them on the stand so that your Honor may examine them, or let the defense go ahead. It is immaterial to the government.

The COURT. I want to say that I notified the District Attorney that I thought all these alienists should be here and under oath, to tell their story with reference -- or, rather, to give their opinion with reference to the defendant Sacco's mental condition. I see there are no copies of the General Laws in here.

Mr. WILLIAMS. They are right in back of you, if your Honor please.

The COURT. All right. You may proceed, Mr. District Attorney, please.

Dr. CHARLES MACFIE CAMPBELL, Sworn.

Q (By Mr. Williams.) What is your full name, Doctor?

A. Charles Macfie Campbell.

Q Where do you live? A. In Cambridge.

Q You are the superintendent of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital?

A. The medical director of the ---

Q The medical director. In charge of the hospital, at any rate?

A. In charge of the hospital.

Q At the request of his Honor, Judge Thayer, you have examined the defendant in this case, Nicola Sacco, in reference to his mental condition and capacity? A. I have.
