

(137)

The Deposition of Benjamin Wilkins aged 36 years and John Wilkins aged 26 years
These Deponents testifyeth and say that Libia Wilkins, wife of John Wilkins was well delivered ^{with child} and was well the next day after but the 2 day after shee was delivered shee was taken with a violent feaver and flux as was supposed and in a little time the flux abated but the feaver continued till shee died which was about four dayes

Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper.

1870