

MASSACHUSETTS CULTURAL COUNCIL
FOLK & TRADITIONAL ARTS PROGRAM

PHOTOGRAPH LOG

Accession No.: JD-01-01-CS (1 – 36) Date: 12/12/2001

Fieldworker(s): Julie DeBenedictis

Photographer: Julie DeBenedictis

Subject(s): Krakowiak, Polish Dancers of Boston

Event: Dance rehearsal

Place of Photos: Polish-American Citizen's Club in Dorchester

Film Type: color slides

Camera(s): Canon Rebel 2000

| Negative/slide no. | Description |
|--------------------|--|
| 1 | Stanislaw Bogdanski, the choreographer, leading the dancers in first piece |
| 2-9 | Dancing |
| 10 | Close-up of Eric Pierce |
| 11-13 | Stan Bogdanski leading the group |
| 14 | Kryisia Benson, Stan's wife, and Paul Lempitski dancing |
| 15 | Dancers |
| 16 | Eric, Stan's wife, Paul, and Kryisia dancing |
| 17 | Close-up of Kryisia and Stan's wife |
| 18-24 | Couples dancing the Mazur |
| 25? | |
| 26-36 | Group rehearsing final and most dramatic number of this three-part dance. The men act as though they're carrying swords and dance as a group separate from the women. Eventually, the men's group splits into two and they fall in line, one behind the other, to form a path through which the women promenade. |