

The Deposition of Ann putnam who testifieth and saith that I have often seen the apparition of goodby heart among the witches but I did not know who she was: nor she did me no hurt till the 13th of may 1692: that she came to my fathers house personally and told me who she was and asked me if she had ever hurt me: but ever since that day she has hurt me most grievously severall times and urgeth me grievously to writ in his book
