

the Deposition of Mary Warren ^{Test 20th} the last night I heard Juan the apparition of John proctor among the wiches as he had often threatned toward me & punction me and biting me and flogging me and prodding me and my stomach told the blood came out of my mouth and all so I saw him torture me & poore and murthered and John Indian: upon the day of his execution as he had all so threatned me to visit in his book and to eat bread which he brought to me which I refused to see: pro proctor did most grievously torment me with variety of tortures all met ready to kill me Mary Warren owned the above written upon for both boys: & unto J. Grand inquest on the 30th Day of June 1692
