

The deposition of Joseph Herrick ^{senr} who testifieth and saith that on the first day of march 1692 I being then constable for Salem: there was deliv-
-ed to me by warrant from the worshipful Jno. Hathorne and Jonathan Corwine Esqrs. Sarah good: for me to carry to their majesties gaol at Ipswich and that night I sett a guard to watch her at my own house. ~~By~~ namely Saml: Graybrook michael dunell Jonathan Baker: and the afore named persons informed me in the morning that that night Sarah good was gon for some time from them both bare foot and bare legged: and I was also informed that that night Elizabeth Hubbard one of the affected persons complained that Sarah good came and afflicted her: being bare foot and bare legged and samuel Sibley that was one that was attending of Eliza-Hubbard stoock Sarah good on the arme as Elizabeth Hubbard said and Mary Herrick the wife of the above said Joseph Herrick testifieth that on the 2^d march 1692 in the morning I lookt out of Sarah good in the morning and one of his armes was bloody from the Elbow to the wrist: and I also took note of his armes on the night before and then there was no signe of blood on them Joseph Herrick senr and Mary Herrick appeared before us this day for inquest: and did on the oath which the law taketh upon this their evidences to be the truth: this 28th of June 1692

Sworne in Court

Presented by Mrs. C. B. B. to the Museum of Natural History at the University of California Berkeley, California