

The deposition of Henry Henrick aged about 21 one years, this deponent testifieth & saith that in last month was two years; Sarah Good came to his fathers house & desired to lodge there; & his father forbid it; & she went away grumbling & my father bid us follow her & see if she went away clean lost she should live in y^e barn; & by smoking of her pipe should find y^e barn; & the deponent with Jonathan Batchelor going her make y^e barn bid her be gone; or he would get her father of; to which she replied that then it should cost his father Zachariah Henrick one; or two of y^e best cows which he had; — — —
And Jonathan Batchelor aged 14 years testifieth y^e same above written. & doth further testify that about a week after two of his grandfathers cattle were removed from their places; & other younger cattle put in their rooms & since that goodrall of their cattle have bene let loose in a strange manner — — —
Just in Curia

