

COUNTY OF NORFOLK
OFFICE OF CLERK OF COURTS
DEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS.

January 26, 1927.

Walter F. Frederick, Esq., Clerk,
Supreme Judicial Court for the Commonwealth,
Court House, Pemberton Square, Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Frederick:

I am sending you herewith the typewritten copies in the Sacco case, which I understand is to be argued tomorrow, together with defendants' affidavits to which are attached exhibits referred to in the text of the printed bill of exceptions, and the deposition of Madeiros, to which are also attached exhibits referred to in the printed bill of exceptions.

On the outside of the packages you will find attached lists indicating the contents of each package. I trust that everything will be found in order at the time of the arguments.

I also enclose copy of a letter which I received from Mr. Thompson which qualifies the paragraph of the printed bill of exceptions which is therein referred to.

Very truly yours,

RBW/B

Clerk
