

The Deposition of Ann Putnam who testifieth and saith that on 13th of April 1692 I saw the Apperition of Giles Cory come and afflict me urging me to writ in his book and so he continued hurting me by times till the 19th April being the day of his Examination: and during the time of his Examination ~~the Apperition~~ Giles Cory did tortur me a great many times, and also several times since ~~the Apperition~~ Giles Cory ^{at his Apperance} has most grievously afflicted me by beating pinching and all most choaking me to death urging me to writ in his book also on the day of his Examination I saw Giles Cory at his Apperance most grievously affled and tormented many wretched mesery teares and great viber and I verily beleave that Giles Cory is is a dreadful wizzard for since he has ben in prison he at his Apperance has come to me a great many times and afflicted me.

Ann Putnam swears upon her oath that: ^{the above written evidence is} true by the Jurys of inquest Sept 9. 92
