

MASSACHUSETTS CULTURAL COUNCIL

FOLK & TRADITIONAL ARTS PROGRAM

PHOTOGRAPH LOG

Accession No.: KN-02-1-CS1-28 Date: 3/27/02Fieldworker(s): Kathy NeustadtPhotographer: Kathy NeustadtSubject(s): Alex Belozersky (Russian sculptor's) work (and collection of Russian folk art)Event: interview about Russian community in BostonPlace of Photos: Belozerskys' house in Brookline (500 Washington St)Film Type: Kodak E400 Color Reversal FilmCamera(s): Pentax ZX-M

Negative/slide no.	Description
CS1-2	first ceramic figure by Alex Belozersky
CS3	very early slab work, with surface decoration of squeezed slip
CS4	structural slab ceramic piece
CS5-6	early clay structure (painted by Alex's wife, Irene)
CS7-8	ceramic bust, with squeezed slip hair
CS9-11	tar paper constructions
CS12	detail of tar paper construction, hands
CS13	sheet metal version of tar-paper busts
CS14	the artist lying on the backs of classical and modern chairs
CS15-16	more recent works (current style)
CS17-18	recent works with incorporation of wood and sculpture
CS19-20	Alex and Irene Belozersky with Alex's largest tar paper construction
CS21	Dimkova folk ceramic piece: 1 st of the collection
CS22-27	Belozerskys' collection of folk art figurines, mostly from the former Soviet Republics, some from Europe and Mexico
CS28	related figurines: (from left to right): Russian, French, Mexican