

You Thomas Newton Gen^l being appointed to perform the Office of their Maj^{ties} Attorney-Gen^l in the prosecution of the several persons to be indicted and tryed before their Maj^{ties} Justices of Oyer and Terminer now sitting, and from time to time to sit, by vertue of the Commission now published, and in all other matters that may be requisite in the Execution of the same.

Do Swear, that according to your best skill, you will act truly and faithfully on their Majesties behalf, as to Law and Justice doth appertain, without any favour or Affection.

Salom. June 2^d 1692
Thomas Newton
took the oath abovesayd in open Court before me
Wm. Stoughton. So help you God

You being Appointed to officiate as Clerk of this Court, Do Swear ~~by the~~ that you will carefully, uprightly & truly execute and perform whatsoever unto your Duty, in that Place of a Clerk doth appertain.

Salom. June 2^d. 1692
Stephen Sewall in open Court made oath abovesayd to doe the duty of his place of clerk. coram me
Wm Stoughton. So help you God.

The Oath given to me
Geo: Newton & Chapin

Jan 2 1692

